THE HIGHLANDS CELEBRATES “ALL TRAILS LEAD HOME” GRAND PRIZE WINNERS AND $6,000 DONATION TO NEW CANEY ISD EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Hogg family receives a new golf cart as annual spring homebuying campaign supports local students, teachers and educational opportunities

Porter, Texas, July 17 2026—The Highlands, a Caldwell Communities master-planned community in Montgomery County, as announced the Hogg family as the grand prize winners of its 2026 All Trails Lead Home spring sales event.

“Welcoming the Hogg family home and presenting them with the grand prize was the perfect way to celebrate another successful All Trails Lead Home campaign,” said Cady Mulkey, Marketing Coordinator. “This event is about helping families discover a home and lifestyle they love, while also giving back to the schools and educators who help the surrounding community thrive.”

The campaign’s impact extended beyond home sales. For each qualifying move-in-ready home purchased during the promotional period, The Highlands committed a $200 donation to the New Caney ISD Education Foundation. Together, participating homebuyers helped generate a total contribution of $6,000.

The donation will support the foundation's work to enhance educational opportunities for New Caney ISD teachers and staff.

"We are grateful to every family who participated in this year's campaign," continued Mulkey. "Their homebuying journeys helped create a meaningful investment in local education. It is a wonderful example of how new beginnings at The Highlands can have a positive impact throughout the broader community."

Located in Montgomery County, The Highlands is designed around opportunities to connect with nature, neighbors and an active community lifestyle. Residents enjoy an extensive trail system, resort-style amenities, an 18-hole golf course, community events and a diverse selection of homes for a variety of life stages.

For the Hogg family, winning the golf cart marks the beginning of even more opportunities to experience their new surroundings in an easy and convenient way, all while creating new lasting memories in their new home in The Highlands.

The Highlands extends its congratulations to the Hogg family and its appreciation to all the shoppers, homebuyers, builders and community partners who helped make the 2026 All Trails Lead Home campaign a success for yet another year.
